

It's clear it's changing the way we work on a day-to-day basis. We feel like we have more control in decision-making.

Analyzing improvements happening daily

Since January 2016, there have been 350 improvements and counting initiated by front-line staff, ranging from patient safety improvements to enhancing staff communication.

What's next for CQI?

