

McMaster Children's Hospital welcomes new president

Bruce Squires has been appointed the new president of McMaster Children's Hospital.

Hamilton Health Sciences (HHS) is excited to announce the appointment of Bruce Squires as the new president of McMaster Children's Hospital and vice president, women's and children's health for HHS. Squires is the current vice president of people, strategy & performance at the Children's Hospital of Eastern Ontario (CHEO) in Ottawa, ON. He will begin his new pediatric surgeon for more than 27 years and as the hospital's president since 2008. Dr. Fitzgerald will continue to provide care for patients at MCH in the role of pediatric general